ANNUAL 50 YEAR OUTSTANDING MEMBER
FOR THE CLASS OF 1967

The man or woman (men or women) who is most deserving of the honor of receiving this award on the occasion of his/her 50th graduation anniversary.

The Award is in recognition of superb achievements in the following facets of the awardee’s career:

- Membership of the 50-year anniversary class for the year of the presentation;
- Outstanding scholarship record, as a student at Tulane/Newcomb, and/or as an academic professional;
- National and/or international recognition for excellence in his/her chosen career field;
- Demonstration of a continuing loyalty to Tulane/Newcomb over the years by:
  A. Keeping abreast of University activities, accomplishments, and needs;
  B. Volunteering his/her services and support whenever the opportunity is presented, including services as a member of clubs, committees, advisory boards and organizations sponsored by the University, the Alumni Association, the Emeritus Club and local alumni clubs in cities in their geographical area;
  C. Support of annual fund campaigns; and attendance at various university events;
- The recipient/s must be present at the annual Induction and Awards Ceremony.

In summary, the Awards Committee and the Emeritus Board endeavors to select a 50-year graduate who typifies all that Tulane University represents, the best of the results of a Tulane education, and in doing so not only honor the Outstanding Awardee but also honor Tulane by the reflected glory of having this individual/s as an alumnus/alumna.
